

Bad News: NAAA changed the 2009 football schedule on us, moving the USAF game away from "Boat Show" weekend in Annapolis.

Good News: Loew's Hotel has SUCCESSFULLY REBOOKED all of our reservations for the weekend of 31 Oct for the Georgia Southern game (only home game date that they were not already booked for). If you had a reservation for the 8-11 Oct 2009 timeframe, you have been moved to the 29 Oct-1 Nov timeframe. The Hotel will be contacting you to reconfirm your reservation.

At this time, ALL rooms at Loew's are booked with '69 Classmates. O'Callaghans has a block of rooms they are holding for us. If you call Loew's asking for rooms, you should be referred to O'Callaghan's. Or you may call O'Callaghan's directly during regular business hours, Monday – Friday 9-5 at 410-263-7700. Identify your group as Class of '69. Alternatively, reservations can be made by email – reservations@ocallaghanhotels-us.com.

We were lucky to be able to rebook a hotel in Annapolis for the 2009 season after this change. In case you are wondering, '74 had already booked Loew's for the weekend that they moved the AF game to (3 Oct)....dumb luck!
